

Phoenix Rod and Gun Club

Revised By-laws, June 9th, 2004

Article 1: Organization

The name of the organization shall be Phoenix Rod and Gun Club, Inc. and shall be organized as a nonprofit corporation incorporated under the provisions of the Arizona Non-Profit Corporation Act A.R.S. Title 10, Chapter 5 as enacted or as it may be amended.

Article 2: Purposes

1. The purpose of the corporation shall be as specified in the Articles of Incorporation.
2. Phoenix Rod and Gun Club shall function as a membership type club with the specifics of operation as described in these By-laws. The club may have internal and external affiliate organizations.

Article 3: Membership

1. Qualification for Membership:

Any citizen of the United States, at least eighteen (18) years of age, may become a member of this corporation, after signing an application in the form to be prescribed by the Board of Directors of this corporation, and upon paying the dues, as officially announced by the Board of Directors of this corporation, and after subscribing to the following pledge:

I certify that I am not a member of any organization which has as any part of its program the attempt to overthrow the government of the United States or any of its political subdivisions by force or violence; that I have never been convicted of a crime of violence, and if admitted to membership I will faithfully endeavor to fulfill the obligations of good sportsmanship and good citizenship.

2. Classes of Memberships (the terms "membership" and "member" are used interchangeably):

There shall be one (1) class of voting membership in this corporation. An Annual Membership shall be required to pay annual dues as officially announced on a calendar or fiscal year basis, pursuant to rules and regulations of the Board of Directors. Annual membership may consist of either one individual or a family. Memberships in good standing shall have the right to one (1) vote. No membership of this corporation in arrears shall be eligible to vote or enjoy any other of the privileges or benefits offered by this corporation.

3. Expulsion, suspension and resignation of memberships:

- a. Any membership may be expelled or temporarily suspended by the affirmative vote of the Board of Directors, at any regularly convened meeting of such Board for failure to pay any dues provided for herein, or the failure to comply with, or the violation of any of the provision of these By-laws or any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Directors.
- b. No vote on suspension or expulsion may be taken unless at least fifteen (15) days' notice in writing shall have been given to the membership of the charges preferred and of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors, at which such charges will be considered. At such meeting the membership under charges will be accorded a full hearing.
- c. Any membership may be resigned at any time. No dues shall be returned or refunded to any membership expelled or resigning.

4. Membership cards:

Membership cards shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors, shall contain the name of the member to whom issued and the date of issuance, shall be signed by the Membership Secretary only, and shall be entered in the books of this corporation. Membership cards shall be worn in plain view, by all members, while on club facilities.

5. Cancellation:

Upon termination of any membership, the membership card of such member shall be canceled.

6. Transfer of Membership:

No membership in this corporation shall be sold or exchanged or transferred to any person whatsoever, and any attempted sale or transfer shall be deemed void, and said membership canceled.

Article 4: Meetings

1. Annual Meetings of the membership:

The annual meeting of the membership of this corporation shall be held on the second Monday of January at a time and place within Maricopa County, Arizona, to be specified by the Board of Directors.

2. Special meetings of the membership:

A special meeting of the membership of the corporation may be held at any time upon the call of the Board of Directors, or upon demand in writing, stating the object of the proposed meeting, and signed by not less than ten (10) percent of the current voting membership in good standing. Notice of the time, place and object of any special meeting shall be given all officers and membership in good standing in writing by United States mail not less than seven (7) days prior to the date fixed for the holding of the meeting. Any action taken at a special meeting shall be presented at the next annual membership meeting for approval or disapproval.

3. Quorum for Annual and Special Membership meetings:

Ten (10) percent of the memberships of this corporation entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at any Annual or Special membership meeting. If at any annual or special meeting a quorum is not achieved, a majority of the membership present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice until a quorum is achieved, and thereupon any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called had the same been held.

4. Organization of meetings:

The President, or if absent, the Vice President and, in the absence of both, a chairperson elected by those present, shall call the membership meeting to order and shall act as chairperson thereof.

5. Board of Directors Meetings:

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held regularly at such time and place as the Board of Directors may determine. Special meetings by the Board of Directors may be held at any time on the call of the President, or on demand, and in writing to the Secretary by a quorum of the standing Board of Directors. Seven (7) shall constitute a quorum for any meeting or for a call to meet. Resignation of any executive officer or director may be accepted by a majority vote of the remaining members. Any director or executive director may be accepted by a majority vote of the remaining members. Any director or executive officer appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy shall serve until the next annual meeting at which time his successor shall be elected to serve the balance of the unexpired term.

6. Directors' attendance:

Any Director at Large or Division Director (Special Director) who is not in attendance at a total of four regularly scheduled meetings of either the board of directors or the membership, over the period of one calendar year, said director may be removed from his position by majority vote of the board of directors on the fourth absence. A replacement shall be named by a majority vote of the board of directors to fulfill the vacant term of office. Any director who has been removed in this manner may not hold position as director for a period of two years after removal.

In the instance of Division Directors (Special Directors), the board shall name a replacement to hold that office until the next scheduled match of that division. Directly following that match a division meeting will be held to elect a new director for the division.

Article 5: Annual and Special Membership Meeting Voting

1. Nominating Committee:

A nominating committee of at least three (3) members not to exceed five (5) members shall be appointed by the President of the Board of Directors and shall be confirmed by the Board of Directors. This committee shall provide a slate of candidates, drawn from the members in good standing for the nomination of three (3) Directors-at-Large for three (3) year terms.

2. Voting

Memberships in good standing shall be entitled to one (1) vote. The voter for a membership shall be at least 18 years old. No membership of this corporation in arrears shall be eligible to vote or enjoy any other of the privileges or benefits offered by this corporation.

If a quorum is present, voting may proceed; otherwise, an annual election ballot with the names of the candidates nominated per these By-laws will be mailed to each eligible voting membership. An absentee ballot may be requested by a membership not later than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual membership meeting, shall be sent to the requesting membership not later than twenty-one (21) days prior to the annual membership
